

Glossary

API Gateway: A serverless HTTP frontend designed to process requests via a Lambda function

ElasticCache: A managed service for NoSQL in-memory databases

Lambda: A managed compute resource designed for short execution of code without the need for an infrastructure

Postman: An application that eases the complexity of testing HTTP calls

Redis: An open-source NoSQL database