

Init Script

- An init script can be configured on instance launch page under userData section
- Can be used to run commands, install and configure an instance only during first boot
- Can be configured to run on every reboot
- Instances must have a public IP to install software from the internet
- Can be written in any language if the instance image AMI has the required software, mainly written in Bash