Securing the Root User with MFA

Multi-factor authentication (MFA) is important and should be activated whenever possible.

You should enable the MFA for the root account.

The Google Authenticator app can scan a QR code from AWS and synchronize with it so that every time you sign in to AWS, you will need to provide a code from Google Authenticator.

NEXT

◄ | ►